Part VII. Terms & Conditions

If granted a Miller Internship Award, the recipient must accept and complete the requirements indicated below.

Students who are studying abroad or have extenuating circumstances that limit their ability to meet the requirements below must contact the Career Development Center in order to maintain eligibility.

- Attend a mandatory internship orientation workshop and follow-up individual internship planning session
- Complete an internship at the site noted on your application
- Submit a letter confirming acceptance from an internship site
- Complete intern evaluation and facilitate completion of supervisor evaluation
- Participate in recipient poster session on September 16, 2015.

Failure to complete the above stated requirements will result in the forfeiture of award funds.

By signing this application you are giving the Career Development Center permission to request academic transcripts from Lewis & Clark on your behalf. It is important to understand that these transcripts will be a part of your application and that refusal to grant such permission will exclude you from consideration.

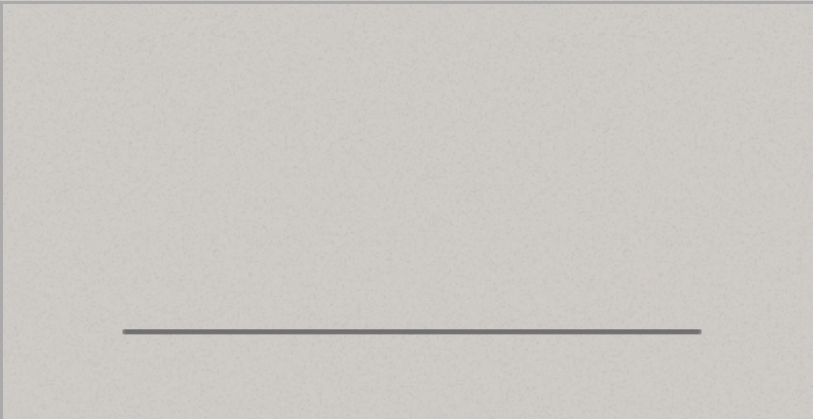

Your signature on this application is also signifying the following statement:

I hereby certify that I have provided accurate information on this application. I understand that the Miller Internship Selection Committee, in considering me for this award, will review my transcript and other supporting documents. I hereby authorize and consent to that review.

I agree to the terms and conditions stated above.
