

POLITICAL ECONOMY OF INEQUALITY IN AMERICA

The Political Economy Program invites the LC/Portland community to join us on:

Thursday, April 7, 3:30-4:30pm in JRHH 244

For a lively, social-justice focused conversation about the political economy of race, wealth, inequality, mortgage, and housing in America with guest speaker

Karen Gibson

Associate Professor, Urban Studies & Planning, PSU

Political Economy minors are invited to continue the conversation over happy hour at the Muddy Rudder (in Sellwood) immediately following the event (4:30-6:00pm). Food is complementary and drinks are available for purchase. Minors, please RSVP to ElizabethBennett@lclark.edu.