Hispanic Heritage Month

Go to El Grito with GLU!

Come to El Grito in Portland with GLU! We'll be taking a group of students interested in attending the festival in Portland via the Trimet. El Grito festival is held in Portland and celebrates multiple Latin American countries gaining their independence. There will be performances, vendors, and much more!

We plan on meeting Friday, Sept. 15th at 4pm in front of the Bon and leaving together on the Trimet. We intend to leave the event at 9pm but that can be earlier or later depending on the vibe.

Please fill out the interest form (attached or by scanning the QR code on the poster) by Tuesday 9/12 so we can get a rough headcount of how many people would like a free Trimet pass.

El Grito Interest Form

Calling all Hispanic, Chicano/a, Latino/a, Latinx, Latine students!

We are excited to invite you to our community dinner, where we aim to foster a sense of togetherness by sharing and savoring favorite dishes from different Hispanic cultures.

This event is closed for those who self-identify as Hispanic, Chicano/a, Latino/a, Latinx, Latine.

Get involved with Heritage Month Celebrations!

Looking to get involved? Join any of our future Heritage Month Planning Committees!

We are currently seeking members to join the LGBTQIA+ History Month (Oct) and Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month Planning Committees (Nov). Have a say in how we learn, honor, and celebrate.

We will start these committees 4-6 weeks prior to the actual month of celebration, we typically meet once a week or bi-weekly. Fill out the Google Form to let us know your interest!

First-Generation Community Circle

Tuesday, September 12th
5:30-6:30pm
IME Suite (3rd floor Fowler)

Join IME's First-Gen Community Circle for students who self-identifies as first-generation college students! We define first-generation as neither guardians have earned a Bachelor's degree, however, if you feel like you don't fit this definition and would like to participate, we encourage that you do!

Come build community with other First-Generation L&C students!

Ray Warren Symposium Community Planning Meetings

We are so excited to collaborate with you all to organize and celebrate the 20th Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies. The symposium will be held on November 8–10, 2023 and we want to extend an invitation to you to our community planning meetings.

There is no prior experience necessary when attending our planning meetings, so everyone is encouraged to attend, and snacks will be provided! We appreciate any and all ideas for this year's symposium, Future Forward. We will be holding planning meetings on the following Wednesdays: 9/13, 9/27, 10/11, 10/25, 11/1 in Miller 414 from 4:30-5:30 pm.

LC's BIPOC Legal Mentorship & Community Program's Annual Reception

Thursday, September 28

6:00-8:00pm

Lewis & Clark Law School Amphitheater/LRC

The BIPOC legal mentorship and community program was created to provide support, networking opportunities, and community to BIPOC-identified students at Lewis & Clark Law School. Learn more about this program during the 2nd annual reception.

Please RSVP ASAP or before September 20, 2023, as we have capped the guest count for catering purposes. We ask that if you RSVP, please make sure you attend the program since other people may not be able to attend due to RSVP cut offs.

The program is open to all students (law school and undergraduate), alums, firms, nonprofits, and other allies for BIPOC students and/or attorneys.
