

Week 10: Happy Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month!

November is Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month! We hope you will check out all of the events planned for this month, put on by IME in collaboration with Native Student Union and our IPHM Planning Committee. Additionally, the 20th Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic studies is taking place this week from November 6-10. We highly encourage you all to attend as many events as you can!

Need to chat? Visit IME for drop-in hours

There are a lot of things going on in our day to day life, which can create various stressors. You are not alone and IME is here to be of support. Whether it be academic, personal life, or current events we are here for you!

Come visit Joann or Erin during IME drop in hours.

Monday, Nov 6th 1-2pm
Tuesday, Nov 7th 9-10:30am
Wednesday, Nov 8th 2-3pm or 4-5pm
Thursday, Nov 9th 9-10am and 2-5pm

For PDF versions of archived, visit the IME website or click this link.

What's Happening

Here's what's in this week's IME Newsletter:

Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month

- Madeline Sayet: Indigenized Shakespeare
- November is Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month!

IME Events

- Healthcare Wokeshop
- First Generation Celebration Dinner
- A Slice of Fun: Come meet Assistant Director of IME, Erin
- Lunch Series: Adulting while First-Gen
- Queer Craft Night
- Volunteer at Capitol Hill Elementary School!
- Need to chat? Visit IME for drop-in hours

More Events

- 20th Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies
- Ray Warren Symposium Community Dialogues Sign-Ups!
- Afrikan Diaspora Club Trivia Night
- New Course in Spring 2024: Intro to Ethnic Studies
- Possible QTPOC Group Forming
- Trip to Japanese Garden!

Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month

MADELINE SAYET

INDIGENIZED SHAKESPEARE

Native Artist/Scholar Residency Program

SATURDAY NOV 11TH, 4PM

AGNES FLANAGAN CHAPEL

In this lecture, Mohegan theater maker and scholar Madeline Sayet will discuss the historical context of the Native American Theater Movement in the United States, and how it evolves in relationship to the practice of Indigenizing Shakespeare.

Presented with support from The Office of the President, The Department of Theatre, Arts@LC and General Education.

FREE TICKETS HERE

Madeline Sayet: Indigenized Shakespeare

November 11th, 4pm
 Agnes Flanagan Chapel
 FREE TICKETS

In this lecture, Mohegan theater maker and scholar Madeline Sayet will discuss the historical context of the Native American Theater Movement in the United States, and how it evolves in relationship to the practice of Indigenizing Shakespeare. She will also discuss her own experiences indigenizing Shakespeare, and adapting classical works, as well as offer tools to break open and engage with Shakespeare's plays artistically from your own individual perspectives.

Join us following the lecture at 7:30pm for the world premier of Yvette Nolan's translation of Shakespeare's Henry IV, directed by Waylon Lenk (Karuk).

Reserve Your
 Tickets

November is Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month!

Join the Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month Planning Committee for a month of events that center our Indigenous communities. See the flyer to learn more.

Please email IME (multicultural@lclark.edu) or NSU (nsu@lclark.edu) to learn more!

IME Events

Healthcare Wokeshop

Friday, November 10
4:00-5:00pm
IME Suite (3rd Floor Fowler)

How do you feel about the healthcare system?! Let's talk about the diversity and accessibility of healthcare in the US and around the world!

Pizza will be provided!

Email multicultural@lclark.edu with any questions.

First Generation Celebration Dinner

Tuesday, November 7
5:00-7:00pm
Stamm Hall

We are excited to invite you to the First

RSVP
Here

Generation Celebration Dinner! At this dinner, we aim to create a supportive and welcoming environment for first-generation students, faculty, and staff. It's an opportunity to share your journey, connect with like-minded individuals, and celebrate the strength and resilience of being a first-generation individual.

Please RSVP by November 1 to secure your spot at this event.

A Slice of Fun: Come meet Assistant Director of IME, Erin

Monday, November 13
11:30am-1:00pm
IME Suite

Join us in the IME suite for a pizza party and meet Assistant Director Erin. Enjoy some pizza and wonderful conversations! Looking forward to seeing you there!

Please email multicultural@lclark.edu for questions and accommodations

RSVP
Here

Lunch Series: Adulting while First-Gen

Wednesday, November 15
12:00-1:00pm
Trail Room

Join Lewis and Clark first-gen staff members for an informal lunch. Bring your lunch and meet us in the Trail Room! Join us for discussions about being first-gen and adulting (i.e. college experience with family, budgeting for the holidays, credit cards) and so much more!

Scheduled lunches for Fall 2023 will be Wednesday, November 15 and Wednesday, November 6.

Queer Craft Night

Thursday, November 16

6:00-8:30pm

IME Suite (3rd Floor Fowler)

Come celebrate the end of LGBTQIA* History Month with a Queer Craft Night! Come learn about the queer roots of DIY in a hands-on craft night.

Supplies for zine or patch-making provided, or bring your own! RSVP so we know how many people to expect and if you'll be bringing your own supplies.

Email multicultural@lclark.edu with any questions.

RSVP
Here

Volunteer at Capitol Hill Elementary School!

Partner with Capitol Hill Elementary to intentionally connect students of color with mentors of color from Lewis & Clark, holding space for students & mentors to meet & develop relationships.

Transportation will be provided for those who participate!

Questions? Email joannz@lclark.edu or msauers@pps.net

Interest Form

More Events

20th Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies

This year's symposium revolves around reimagining society to build a liberating and just future. Inspired by Afrofuturism and BIPOC traditions of speculation and imagination, we explore what it means to integrate BIPOC futurism(s) into the world we create, whether fantastical or real.

We will be holding workshops, panels and more from Wed., Nov. 8 through Friday, Nov. 10 in various locations on campus. Check out our website for the full symposium schedule!

Check Out The Schedule

Ray Warren Symposium Community Dialogues Sign-Ups!

Thursday, November 9
3:30-5:00pm and 4:30-6:00pm
Fowler Student Center

As a part of this year's annual Ray Warren Symposium, we are excited to be partnering with the Office of the President in holding two Community Dialogues. These conversations will invite participants to reflect on this year's theme of the future by thinking about ways of making the world a better place. Space is limited; registration is required! Click the link to register for one of the afternoon slots on Thurs., Nov. 9.

[RSVP
Here](#)

Afrikan Diaspora Club Trivia Night

Friday, November 10
6:30-8:00pm
Trail Room

We hope this message finds you in great spirits. Join us for an exciting Afrikan Diaspora Trivia Night with prizes! We are thrilled to invite you to our upcoming Afrikan Diaspora Trivia Night, an event dedicated to celebrating the rich history, culture, and contributions of the Afrikan diaspora.

Email afrikandiaspora@lclark.edu with any questions.

New Course in Spring 2024: Intro to Ethnic Studies

Introduction to Ethnic Studies is a new course offered for the first time in Spring 2024!

Professor Magalí Rabasa
MWF 12:40-1:40pm
No prerequisites.

Through a transdisciplinary study of the social production of conceptions of racial and ethnic difference, students will develop tools for approaching race and ethnicity as categories of analysis. The course will explore a wide range of themes through the examination of academic texts as well as art, literature, music, film, and digital media.

NEW CLASS SPRING 2024

ETHS INTRODUCTION TO 200 ETHNIC STUDIES

Through a transdisciplinary study of the social production of conceptions of racial and ethnic difference, students will develop tools for approaching race and ethnicity as categories of analysis.

The course will explore a wide range of themes including slavery, colonialism, imperialism, capitalism, gender, sexuality, borderlands, immigration, diaspora, indigeneity, space, and place, through the examination of academic texts as well as art, literature, music, film, and digital media.

PROFESSOR MAGALÍ RABASA
MWF 12:40-1:40PM
NO PREREQUISITES

QUESTIONS? mrabasa@lclark.edu

Possible QTPOC Group Forming

QSU is hoping to form an informal support group run by and for queer, trans, students of color. We hope to create a community and provide QTPOC students with a safe, low-key space to talk about issues they may not feel comfortable talking about elsewhere. This group will be hosted by QSU coordinators who identify as queer students of color.

In order to gauge interest, we ask that you fill out the linked interest form and when2meet. Please email qsu@lclark.edu with any questions.

Interest Form

When2Meet

Trip to Japanese Garden!

Saturday, November 11
Meet at 12:00 at the Pio stop

Affinity groups are excited to host a collaboration outing in which we go to the Japanese Garden! You can learn more about the Japanese Garden on their website.

The trip will be on Nov. 11 (Saturday): we will take the Pio at 12pm & transfer to Trimet to go to the Japanese Garden!

Please fill below the Google interest form so that we can order the Trimet bus tickets accordingly and have an estimation of the number of people who will be joining us!

Interest Form

Visit the IME Suite on the 3rd floor of Fowler: 9-5pm Monday to Friday

Interested in submitting something to be added to the IME Newsletter?

If you would like to submit something to be added to the IME newsletter, please fill out the form below. The IME newsletter goes out every Monday morning (or Tuesday if Monday is a holiday). All submissions to make it into the weekly newsletter must be done by Monday at 9am or they will be added to the following week's newsletter.

Newsletter Submission

Stay Connected with IME

Lewis & Clark College | 0615 SW Palatine Hill Rd., Portland, OR 97219

Unsubscribe multicultural@lclark.edu

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by multicultural@lclark.edu powered by

Try email marketing for free today!