

2011-2012 Community Relations Committee Membership Application

The Community Relations Committee (CRC) is charged with facilitating dialogue and activities between Lewis & Clark students, faculty and staff, and the greater Portland community. It promotes programs and projects that encourage and foster connections between these groups, and also seeks to help student engage with the outside world. The CRC acts as a diplomat, trying to promote the interests of students within our community as voiced by the senate or the student body at large.

All students are welcome to apply. CRC will be the most successful if we have people who are passionate about the L&C community and want to see a positive atmosphere created for all students. Finding and having different opinions and interests are welcome because it will help to make the best decisions possible and bring new ideas to the L&C community. There will be scheduled meetings.

Applications are due on or before Thursday, September 15 by 5PM in the Cabinet office (slide under the door if no one is there) or email them to soc@lclark.edu.
