TIPS FOR USING THE ROAD MAP

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Take Ownership</th>
<th>Plan Early</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Road Map is a guideline to design your plan of action. Invest in your education by seeking a broad range of experiences, which build on your interests and values; strengthen your skills and competencies; and expand your understanding of the world around you.</td>
<td>Ask any Senior. Four years go by fast. It is important that you put a plan into place to make the most of your time. Writing it down helps you map it out and make adjustments as your interests and experiences develop. Each step provides opportunities for you to craft your goals and explore your strengths. Share your goals with your network of faculty, mentors, peers and staff to keep you on track and motivated!</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Experience, Reflect, Integrate</th>
<th>Know Your Resources</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Grounded in the liberal arts tradition, the Road Map expands on academics through experiential learning. Thoughtful reflections are integral to experience-based learning. Consider using the next four years to test your hypotheses about yourself. Each experience informs the next as you integrate your interests, skills, strengths and passions.</td>
<td>There is a wealth of resources on campus to help you set and achieve your goals. Take advantage of all L&amp;C has to offer by learning about the services and programs designed to enhance and support your college experience.</td>

EXPLORE

College is a time to try new things and get to know yourself. Self-knowledge helps you build a strong foundation for your college experience. Take this opportunity to gain an awareness of your interests, strengths and motivations.

Get to Know YOU
- Complete StrengthsQuest and related exercises on page 8
- Read the “Who Am I” section on page 6 and ponder the reflection questions
- Seek out an opportunity to explore one of your top 5 strengths
- Take a class you’re interested in
- Attend Meet Your Major information sessions
- Use the “What Can I Do with a Major In” resource on the Career Center’s website

Connect with the L&C Community
- Join a student group, team, or committee
- Participate in community events
  - PIOFair
  - Days of Service
- Attend events in your residence hall and get coffee with your Resident Advisor
- Attend the student employment fair to find an on-campus job
- Get involved with the Office of Student Leadership and Service and volunteer
- Follow us: CC on Facebook and Twitter (@PioCareers)
- Get the Career Center Newsletter (email careers@lclark.edu to get on the listserv)

Develop Time Management Skills and Strategies
- Schedule an appointment with Student Support Services
  - Student Support Services provides a wide range of services, support and advocacy for students with a variety of disabilities and learning differences. They’re here to assist you in making your time here productive and successful. (Email to schedule an appointment: access@lclark.edu)
- Visit with a personal counselor
  - At one time or another, most students feel overwhelmed by the responsibilities of college, work, family, or relationships. Counseling Service staff are available to help students cope with these and other stressors. About 15 percent of Lewis & Clark students visit the Counseling Service each year. (Email to schedule an appointment: counsel@lclark.edu)
- Talk with your academic advisor
  - Your faculty advisor is a key resource for academic information and guidance about graduation requirements, course selection, semester schedules, four-year plans, and choosing a major. Advisees may also chat with advisors about career plans and strategize about academic challenges and difficulties.
ENGAGE

Take your experience beyond the classroom and look for opportunities to get involved on campus or in Portland. Discover and connect your interests and passions through co-curricular activities such as student clubs and organizations, service projects or internships.

Research Your Areas of Interest

- Identify the subjects that most resonate with you
- Take advantage of faculty office hours
- Meet with your advisor
- Declare a major
- Apply for a SAAB grant to attend a conference
- Continue learning about your values, interest, personality, skills, and strengths
  - Meet with a Career Counselor to discuss assessments (Strong Interest Inventory and Myers-Briggs Type Indicator – more info on page 7)
- Investigate your areas of interest with the resources on page 15

Stay Connected to the L&C Community

- Think about serving in a leadership role on campus
  - Run for an ASLC position
  - Join a club or organization
  - Get involved with College Outdoors
  - Get involved with the Student Alumni Association
- Attend lectures and symposia
  - Gender Studies Symposium
  - International Affairs Symposium
  - Environmental Affairs Symposium
  - Ray G. Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies
  - Lectures hosted by departments (check with the department for more information)
- Participate in campus wide days of service
  - MLK Day of Service
  - Spring Into Action

Understand the Job Search Process

- Meet with a Peer Career Advisor or Resident Career Advisor
- Attend networking events such as Careers for Pioneers
- Attend resume workshops and craft a resume
- Consider participating in the bi-annual Resume Challenge
- Create a LinkedIn account
- Conduct informational interviews with alumni and community members to learn about your interests

Pop Quiz:

What do you like consuming that you might like to try creating? (i.e. writing a song, making a film, cooking)

Try it!
EXPERIENCE

Every experience is an opportunity to gain insights about yourself, your community, and your world. Integrate your academic learning with meaningful experiences. Start to craft an action plan to reach your goals!

Apply Your Academic Knowledge

- Secure an internship or summer job in your field of interest
  - Apply for a Summer Internship Grant if your opportunity is unpaid
- Pursue an on campus research opportunity through the Summer Science Opportunity program
- Ask professors about opportunities in the field
- Study abroad – visit the Office of Overseas and Off-Campus Programs for more information
- Be able to articulate the value of a liberal arts education

Formalize Your Job Search Strategies

- Research graduate school programs, job opportunities, and short-term programs
  - Use Handshake: This job search resource and database can be found on our website: go.clark.edu/career_center.
- Hone your resume and LinkedIn profile
- Participate in the Resume Challenge
- Attend networking events and practice schmoozing
- Use L&C Net and the Pioneer Career Corps to connect with alumni
- Frequently check the Career Center’s calendar and attend programs (especially those that connect you with employers and alumni)

EMPOWER

Navigating the transition out of a structured educational setting can be challenging and requires you to rely on your strengths. Reflect on what you have accomplished, what your next steps will be and how you will leave your mark on this community.

Develop Your Action Plan

- Clarify your post-graduation goals
- Apply to programs and graduate school in the summer and fall
- Use your network to connect with job/internship opportunities
- Be able to articulate your strengths and how you use them
- Do a mock interview through the Career Development Center
- Participate in Senior Experience events
- Continue to participate in CDC programs
- Meet with a Career Counselor

Pop Quiz:

Name 3 organizations you are interested in working for.

WHO AM I?

The spirit of career planning is finding harmony between who you are and an environment that fits you. Career planning is a dynamic and continuous process. Just as reading about exercise and diet won’t improve your health, reading about self-assessment without actually answering the questions and engaging in some self-reflection won’t assist your career development or lead to job satisfaction. Self-assessment is, in essence, taking the time to explore your answers to the following questions:

- Who am I?
- What are my intellectual interests?
- What do I have to offer an employer?
- What do I want from a job?
- What are my strengths? How do I use them? How do I develop them?

SELF-ASSESSMENT REFLECTION QUESTIONS

As you engage in self-assessment reflect on your answers to the following questions:

What do you seem to learn with the greatest ease?

What do you have a burning desire to know and understand?

When you imagine yourself as really, really relaxed and happy, what are you doing?

How do you spend your discretionary money?

What reasons have driven your past decisions?

What do faculty compliment you on? What do they notice about your work?

To date, what experiences have been your most fulfilling?

Imagine you have graduated from college, and you feel great! What is it about this experience that makes you feel great?

USING ROAD MAP ACTIVITIES

The next few pages are filled with activities and worksheets that will help you:

- Solidify what you want to do and what is important to you
- Improve your self-awareness
- Articulate your strengths in cover letters, interviews, etc.

Each activity helps you hone in on a different part of your career development process:

Values
- Work Values Inventory – page 9
- What I Want Most – page 12

Interests
- Strong Interest Inventory – schedule an appointment with a career counselor

Personality
- Myers-Briggs Type Indicator – schedule an appointment with a career counselor

Skills
- Skills Inventory – page 10
- What I Do Best – page 11

Strengths
- At First Glance – page 8
- Verifying My signature themes – page 8

Don’t feel the need to complete them all – do the ones that speak to you and the way you think. Pages 13-14 are a place for you to gather your thoughts and develop occupational ideas based on what you see.
VALUES, INTERESTS, PERSONALITY, SKILLS AND STRENGTHS (VIPSS)

Understanding your values, interests, personality, skills and strengths is the first step toward choosing an eventual career path. Developing your self-awareness can be as formal as taking a personality or interest inventory or as informal as participation in co-curricular activities. Learn about yourself and explore your strengths and weaknesses by surveying your VIPSS (Values, Interests, Personality, Skills, Strengths). When you know your VIPSS, you make more informed choices about careers.

Matching careers to what you have identified as important before beginning your career research helps you stay focused. Exploring these questions through assessment tools will help you discover more about yourself and guide you to academic majors and careers most appropriate for you. A little time spent now to increase your knowledge about yourself and the world of work can save you from panic in the future.

Value Inventories
Value inventories measure how important different values are to you. What is most important to you in a job and workplace?

Interest Inventories
The questions in an interest inventory ask you about your likes and dislikes regarding various activities. What do you like to do?

Personality Inventories
A personality inventory looks at one’s individual traits, motivational drives, needs, and attitudes. How do you interact with the world around you?

Skill Inventories
In addition to determining what and how well you perform, a skills assessment also helps you figure out what you enjoy doing. What are you good at?

StrengthsQuest
StrengthsQuest gives you the opportunity to develop strengths by building on your greatest talents—the way in which you most naturally think, feel, and behave as unique individuals. What are your areas of greatest potential?
STRENGTHSQUEST ACTIVITIES

At First Glance

The Clifton StrengthsFinder is comprised of 34 themes. These themes emerged in Gallup's study of successful people over decades of research. Each theme contains several talents. These talents are natural, recurring patterns of thoughts, feelings, or behaviors. The talents found in your Signature Themes are things you do naturally — like breathing. You actually do them without even trying. Read through the descriptions (found in your signature themes report or on pages 16-17) for each of your Signature Themes. Highlight the words and/or sentences that best describe you. Then, answer the following questions:

- What is your first reaction to these terms? What do they mean to you at this point?
- Does anything in the report surprise you?
- How well do you feel your Signature Themes describe the ways in which you most naturally, think, feel, and behave as a unique individual?

Verifying My Signature Themes

Share your signature themes report with someone close to you (e.g. a parent, sibling, friend). Ask them to read through the report, and then ask them the following questions. Record their answers.

- Which parts of the report really describe me?
- What surprises you?
- Which of the five themes have you noticed in me most?
- Give me an example of when and how you’ve seen this theme or these themes in me?

Things to Reflect Upon

- How did it feel to ask others about your talents?
- Did some people see your themes differently than you did? How so?
- Were you surprised by anything that the other person said?
- Describe one thing you learned as a result of completing this exercise.
WORK VALUES INVENTORY

It is key to select potential career options that are congruent with your values. The list below will help you to identify those values that you think will be important to you in your work. Read each value and decide if it is always, sometimes or never important to you. Place an “X” in the appropriate box. Use whatever definition for each value works for you. Use the blank boxes to add your own values if they are not on the list.

INTEGRATION WORKSHEET

Pull your VIPSS together here to develop occupational ideas. Look for places of overlap and recurring themes. Your ability to begin connecting your academics with experiences is critical to determining your next step and creating a plan of action.
RESEARCHING YOUR OCCUPATIONAL INTERESTS

There are many ways to identify occupations that fit your personal profile: reading about them, researching them on the internet, talking with professionals in the field, and attending campus career presentations. You can also test out a possible career choice through a career-related internship or work experience. To make sure you have the most accurate picture of a career and/or occupation, it’s best to use multiple methods to gather information. The resources listed below are just a starting place; talk to your career counselor about additional resources.

We suggest you start with these online resources:

Occupational Information Network (O’Net) onetonline.org
Maintained by the Department of Labor, this site allows you to find jobs that fit your interests, skills and experience; explore career profiles from the latest labor market data; search for occupations that use your skills; and view specific details about occupations and identify related occupations.

Glassdoor glassdoor.com
Glassdoor provides you an inside look at jobs and companies. Salary details, company reviews, and interview questions — all posted anonymously by employees and job seekers.

My Next Move mynextmove.org
Comprehensive information on careers searchable by key word, industry area and/or area of interest.

Job Profiles jobprofiles.org
A career exploration and inspirational web site where experienced workers share their motivations, basic skills and advice with those just entering the career field. The profiles are of real people and the work covers a wide variety of jobs.

Job Star jobstar.org
Career Information. Originally developed for California job changers, this site includes articles on career information, links to resources, and lists of books to look for in your local public library.

LinkedIn: Lewis & Clark College Career Network (L&C Net) go.lclark.edu/career_center
The Lewis & Clark College Career Network (L&C Net) is a network of 2500+ alumni and parents who have volunteered to act as career “experts” to L&C students and alumni in transition. Hosted as a group on LinkedIn, alumni volunteers live in locations throughout the United States and abroad, and represent a cross-section of industries and professional careers.

Pioneer Career Corps go.lclark.edu / career_center
Pioneer Career Corps is a program to connect you with our remarkable network of alumni, in an effort to better equip you for life after Lewis & Clark. Members are here to provide you with practical career advice and offer a range of career perspectives. Our network of alumni are looking to help you tailor your resume to specific career paths, provide career guidance, conduct informational interviews, and/or mock interviews. You can connect with alumni in person, by email, phone or Skype.
OCCUPATION EVALUATION WORKSHEET

Using an occupation evaluation table is one way to compare various career options you are considering. By putting the options side by side and comparing them in specific areas, you can get a clearer picture of how they stack up against each other.

1. In the first column, list your VIPSS and arrange them from most important to least important.
2. Arrange your list of occupations in the columns and title them.
3. In each column, note how well the occupation matches your VIPSS listed and give it a score between 1 and 5. One being it does not match your VIPSS at all and five being that it’s a perfect fit. If you don’t know how well an occupation satisfies a particular requirement, talk to a career counselor for help gathering more research.
4. Compare your totals and how each option aligns with your VIPSS.
