

Summer Sessions Application to Audit

Lewis & Clark College's Summer Sessions Auditing Program allows non-degree-seeking students¹ to attend regularly scheduled undergraduate classes at Lewis & Clark on a space-available basis. As an auditor, you may participate in classroom discussion at the instructor's discretion, but you will not be required to take any examinations or complete any class assignments. Your name will appear on the class roster, and you will receive a final grade of "Audit." You will not earn course credit. The fee to audit is $150 per credit hour, plus any additional course fees.

If you have questions, please contact the CAS Registrar's office at reg@lclark.edu or 503-768-7335.

To register to audit a course, you must obtain the instructor's permission in writing. Auditors are welcome to take classes during the summer term only. Applications to audit will be accepted after May 1.

To audit a course, please do the following:

1. Complete the form below.
2. Obtain the course instructor's signature.
3. Explain why you would like to audit the course, including any background you may have in the course field. You may write your response on the back of this form or submit it on a separate sheet of paper.
4. Return the completed form and payment no later than one week before the start of the session.
