

Lewis & Clark College

Office of Diversity and Inclusion

Institutional Research

Culturally Engaging Campus Climates Survey

Highlights for CAS Department Chair

September 20, 2018

REPORT SUMMARY

The Culturally Engaging Campus Climates Survey was distributed to all current undergraduate students, graduate students, and faculty at Lewis & Clark in fall 2016, and re-launched in spring 2017.

The CAS student survey (N= 2,023) received 357 respondents with a 17.6% response rate.

The CAS faculty survey (N= 250) received 80 respondents with a 32% response rate.

RESPONSE OVERVIEW

CAS student responses by racial demographics

Respondent category	Actual students¹	Survey respondents²
White	64%	65.7%
Two or more races	4.8%	15.9%
Asian American	5.8%	8.1%
Hispanic/Latino	11.6%	4.8%
Black/African American	2.7%	1.5%
Other	--	1.5%
Did not answer/unknown	3.7%	2.1%
Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander	1.0%	0%
American Indian/Alaskan Native	1.2%	0.3%

CAS faculty responses by racial demographics

Respondent category	Actual faculty	Survey respondents
Tenure/tenure track	75%	63.8% ³
Non-tenure/tenure track	25%	35%
White	80.8%	72.5%
Two or more races	2.4%	6.3%
Asian American	6.0%	6.3%
Hispanic/Latino	6.8%	2.5%
Black/African American	1.6%	2.5%
Other	--	1.3%
Did not answer/unknown	2.0%	11.3%
Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander	0%	0%
American Indian/Alaskan Native	1.2%	0.3%

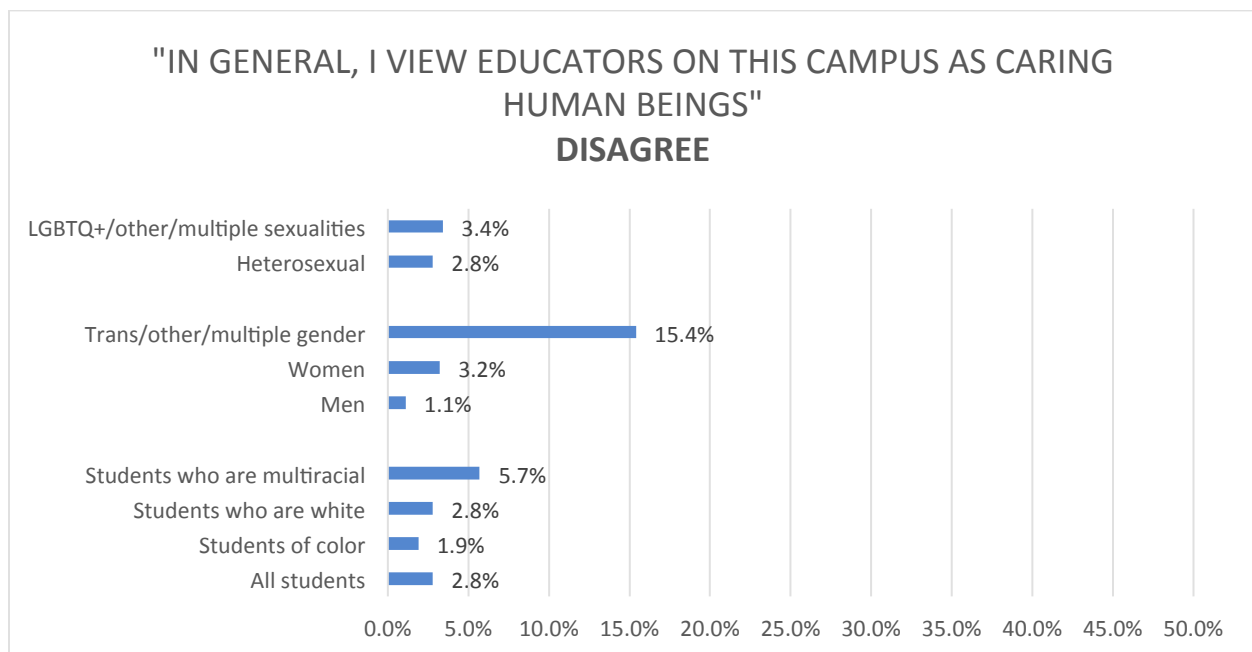

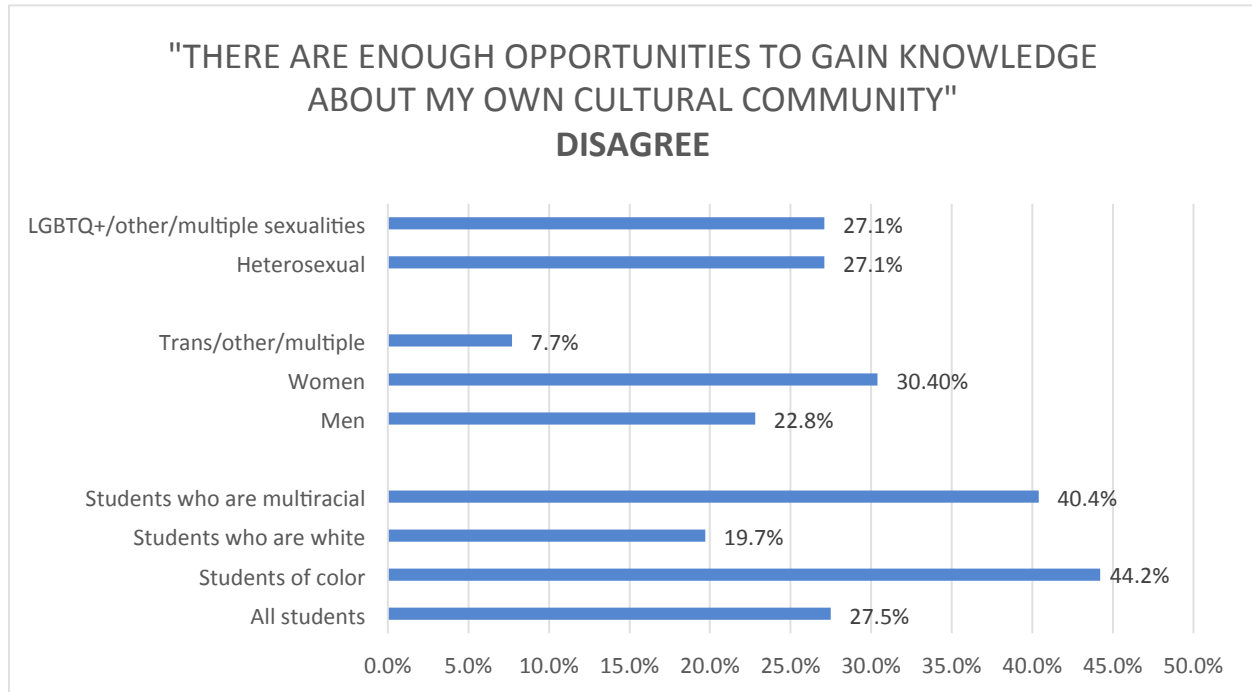

¹ Data collected from admissions responses used for Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) official reporting. These categories may not reflect how our students think of themselves.

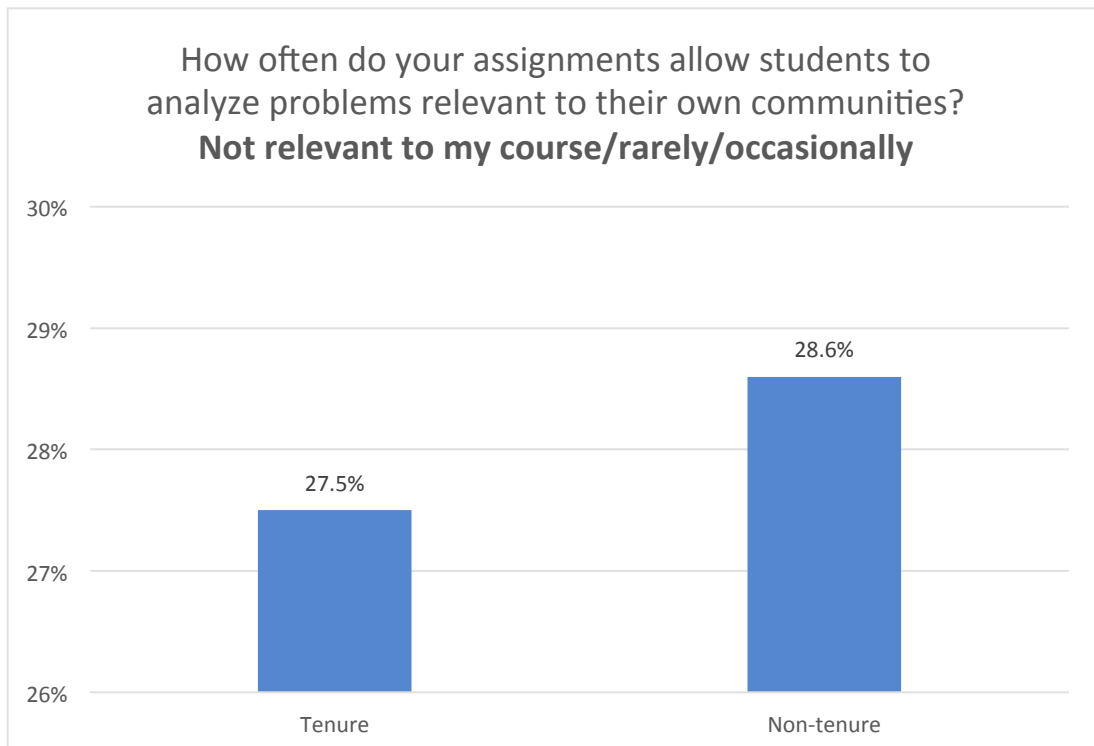

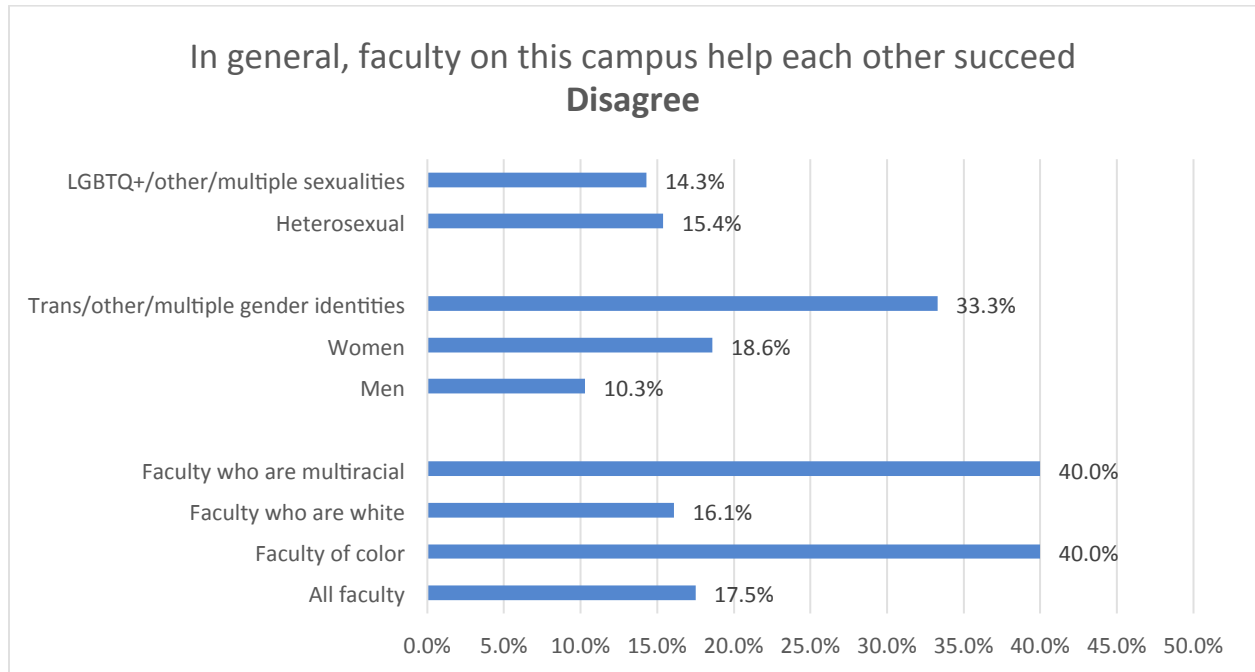

² Data self-reported by respondents during survey process. Note that respondents' self-identified demographic traits may not match responses collected during the admissions process.

³ Tenure/non-tenure status determined by response to question "how many undergraduate courses will you teach this academic year?"

SELECTED RESPONSE DISAGGREGATION

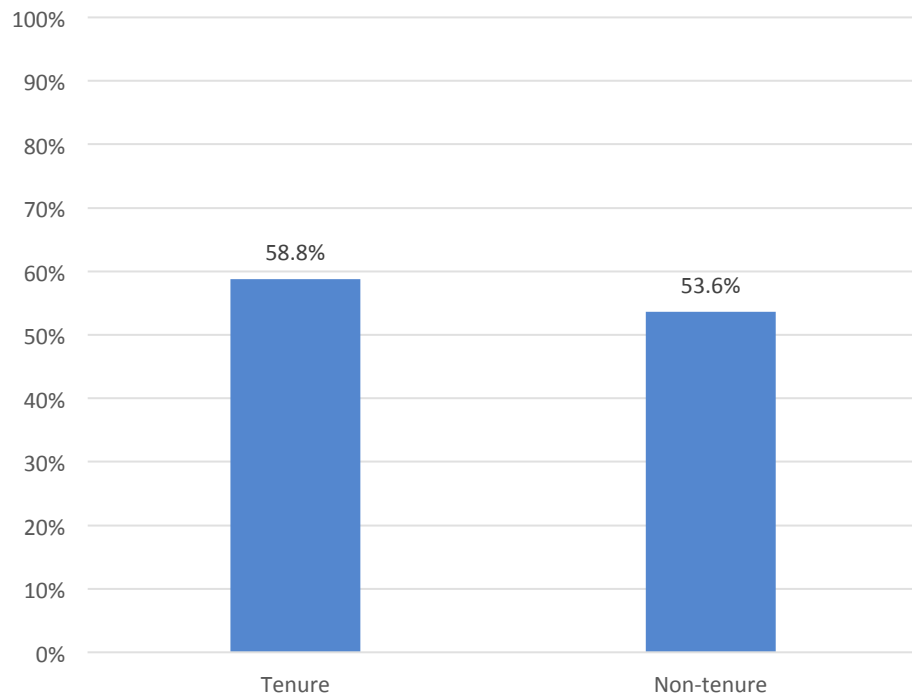

CAS STUDENTS

Compared to when you began at L&C, rate your understanding of different cultures

Much better/somewhat better

Training on facilitating dialogue across cultural differences?

Much better/somewhat better

