

Conditions of Early Decision Admission

Your admission to Lewis & Clark is contingent upon satisfactory completion of all coursework for the current academic year at your current level of performance.

Fulfilling the Early Decision Agreement

Per the Common Application Early Decision Agreement you signed when you applied to Lewis & Clark College, you must promptly withdraw any applications you've submitted to other colleges and universities and make no additional applications to any other institution in any country.

Enrollment Deposit

A nonrefundable enrollment deposit of $500 is required from all students who intend to enroll at Lewis & Clark College. The postmark deadline for this deposit and the enclosed Now It's Your Turn Form is 11:59 p.m. Pacific time on Tuesday, January 15, 2019. The Now It's Your Turn Form may be submitted online at go.lclark.edu/admitted.

Financial Assistance

You have been considered for merit-based scholarships. If you are being offered a merit-based scholarship and/or you applied for need-based aid by filing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the College Board's CSS/Financial Aid Profile by our priority date of November 1, 2018, information about viewing your financial aid award through your Pioneer Portal is included in this packet.

Merit-based scholarship offers are final. Offers of need-based aid may be estimated. Estimated awards require additional documentation to finalize. Check your award letter to determine if your award is estimated and what further action is required. An estimated award can be finalized only after you provide the documents we require to verify information submitted on the aid applications. If the information you submit differs from the information on which the estimated need-based aid award was based, there may be a change in the type or amount of aid we are able to offer. You must submit requested documentation no later than December 17, 2018, to receive a finalized award offer prior to your enrollment deposit deadline.

If you have any questions about financing your education at Lewis & Clark, we encourage you to contact the Office of Financial Aid at fao@lclark.edu, 503-768-7090, or 503-768-7074 (fax).

Financial aid funds cannot be disbursed to your student account until we receive an official final high school transcript showing date of graduation. If you will not graduate from high school, we must receive your GED or other state-recognized high school equivalency before your financial aid will be disbursed.

Credit for Prior Coursework and/or Examinations

To have any college coursework taken while in high school evaluated for possible transfer credit, please provide the following: (1) A letter from your high school stating that the college work (specified by course) was not required for high school graduation and (2) an official transcript from the college granting credit for the course.

To receive credit for Advanced Placement (AP) and International Baccalaureate (IB) examination results, please send an official report directly to the Office of the Registrar (MSC 108). See the online catalog for specific department policies.

Final Transcript and Verified Test Scores

You must send an official copy of your final high school transcript showing date of graduation to the Office of Admissions by July 1. If you have not already done so as part of the application process, you must also submit a verified record of your SAT or ACT scores. Scores are considered verified if sent directly by the testing agency, included on your official high school transcript, or sent directly by your high school counselor. You are exempt from having to provide verified test scores if you applied for admission via the Test-Optional Portfolio Path.

Verification of High School Diploma

The Office of Admissions will confirm that all your transcripts are issued by a high school with a CEEB code. If a transcript is issued by a school lacking a CEEB code, the Office of Admissions will investigate to confirm the school is recognized by an appropriate state department of education or home school association. The Office of Admissions may request a copy of your diploma at any point in the admission process to verify enrollment and graduation.
