All members of the Albany Society and friends are invited to celebrate with the classes of 1954, 1959, 1964, and 1969. At the luncheon, members of the class of 1969 will be inducted into the Albany Society. The Albany Society is an honorary society for those who graduated 50 or more years ago.

On the menu is soft rolls and sea salt butter, summer lettuce and pea tendril salad with cinnamon pistachios, local strawberries & champagne vinaigrette (vegan, made without gluten), glazed local baby carrots (vegan, made without gluten), seared herb risotto cakes (made without gluten), fennel-crusted chicken breast with burnt lemon cauliflower cream (made without gluten), quinoa en croute with burnt lemon cauliflower cream (vegan, made without gluten) and parfait (made without gluten).

12-1 p.m. - Zehntbauer Swimming Pool Open for Lap Swim

1 - 2:30 p.m. - Albany to Fir Acres: The "Cinderella College" Arrives

Join Professor Emerita Jean Ward to explore how courage, patience and vision, three virtues prized by L&C President Morgan S. Odell, also helped shape the college in its early years, from humble beginnings in Albany, Oregon, to celebrated arrival at its Fir Acres home.

1:30 - 6:30 p.m. - Outdoor Swimming Pool Open

The Lawrence Memorial Swimming Pool, another original feature of the Frank Estate, is a perfect spot to cool down on a hot summer day.

2-2:45 p.m. - Shakespeare on Record: Writing an Early Modern Life

Shakespeare's life was well recorded in a host of early modern bureaucratic documents that give clues to his family, his milieu, and the inspirations for his plays. With L&C Head of Watzek Library Special Collections and College Archivist Hannah Crumme, you'll explore some of these documents during this lecture, considering why they were created, what they tell us, and where they might lead future researchers.

2 - 2:45 p.m. - Pioneer College

Presented by Erica Lyman, Clinical Professor of Law, International Environmental Law Project.

2:30 - 4:30 p.m. - Greek Life Social

A reunion social for all sorority and fraternity alumni.

3-3:45 p.m. - Ancient Roman Villas: Agriculture as Spectacle

This past summer, Associate Professor with term and Director of Classics Gordon Kelly was part of an excavation team in Italy. Ancient Roman villas provided comfortable amenities for their wealthy owners, but also served as productive farms. This talk will center on the excavation of an ancient villa in Central Italy, and how findings at this site have revealed aspects of villa design that enabled landowners to observe agricultural activity as an entertainment.

3- 3:45 p.m. - College Admissions Landscape 2019

Join Associate Dean of Admissions Caitlin Harper '10, looking at how admissions realities have changed over the last 30 to 40 years.
