Withdrawal of Participant:

In the event that a student withdraws from a Lewis & Clark Overseas Program, or is dismissed from the program, the following fees will apply:

If withdrawal occurs three months or more before the beginning of the semester (based on the Lewis & Clark academic calendar) the participant will be responsible for the $300 non-refundable deposit.

If withdrawal occurs less than three months before the beginning of the semester (based on the Lewis & Clark academic calendar) the participant will be responsible for paying a penalty of $3,000 (includes non-refundable deposit).

If withdrawal occurs at, or after, the beginning of the semester (based on the Lewis & Clark academic calendar) tuition and program fees will be prorated on a per-day basis, up to the 60-percent point in the semester. After the 60-percent point in the semester, the charges for tuition and program fees are not adjusted.

The College reserves the right to add any fees incurred by Participant to Participant's student account, and to refuse registration, provision of transcripts and issuance of degrees until all fees are paid in full.

Once you are registered for your Overseas Study Program, the Tuition and Program Fee will be charged to your student account. At that point, your account will be pulled into Student and Departmental Account Services' regular schedule of statements.

The Fall 2019 deadline to settle your student account is: August 8, 2019. The Spring 2020 deadline to settle your student account is December 12, 2019. Thereafter, monthly statements will be generated if, for one reason or another, your account is carrying a balance due to the school.
