Opt out of LC's Health insurance & Apply for OHP

- You'll save approx. $1,469.50* per semester
(Rates change each year)
- You can apply online <https://one.oregon.gov> Remember that if you get OHP you won't have state issued health insurance in another state, unless it's a private insurance
- Need Help filling out the application? Trained community partners can help you fill out an application. It's free. Visit OregonHealthCare.gov to find community partner in your area

Fees on Webadvisor

- Log into your Webadvisor, and go to Financial Information
- Opt out of "Student Initiatives Opt Out - Media Fee"
(Save $20 per semester)
- Opt out of "Student Initiatives Opt Out - Green Energy Fee"
(Save $85 per year)
- You'll have to re-opt out every semester
- Opt out if you cannot pay these fees

Apply for EBT (Food Stamps)

- Apply at <https://apps.state.or.us/onlineApplication/>
- You can get the application done in less than an hour
- You can only apply if you live off campus since you are not on a meal plan
- If you have and are taking advantage of work-study then there is a good chance you will receive aid
- An alternative is to visit LC's food pantry

Consider Off Campus Housing

- Consider living off campus after you did your 2 year requirement. Off campus living although not as convenient is way cheaper than on campus housing

Textbooks

- Before purchasing textbooks look for free PDF versions online
- Go to Slugbooks.com and let the website help you look for the cheapest book option
- If you're the type of person who likes hard copies, the library has access to lots of the books your classes require. Check out books on reserve, look at your syllabus before the semester starts and scan them
- Visit ASLC and ask about their textbook subsidy program

SAAB & ASLC grants

- If you want to go to an event/conference you can try to get money from SAAB/ASLC
- Visit ASLC and ask about Pios for Pios

Save time Save money

- When choosing classes think about which classes allow you to “double-dip”. Which classes can cover your major requirements and your language requirement? Your college advisor can help you with that!

Hope this helps!
