

The Political Economy program invites you to a talk on

Why Unions Matter

Tuesday, January 28, 3:30-4:30pm, JRHH 102

- Martin Hart-Landsberg--Professor Emeritus of Economics, Lewis and Clark College, and Chair of Portland Rising (a Jobs with Justice committee)
- Scott Cheesewright--SEIU local 49 Assistant Director of Property Services and Lewis and Clark College graduate, class of 2009.

Stagnating income, declining wealth, soaring inequality, growing economic insecurity, falling life expectancy---and that is after more than a decade of economic expansion!

Come learn why unions matter if you value social justice, good jobs, and healthy communities
