

Vital Facts for Students With Disabilities and Learning Differences

INSTITUTIONAL RESOURCE

Student Support Services serves undergraduate, graduate, and law students with disabilities and learning differences. We also help any student who is struggling with academic work or anyone with questions about disabilities and impairments.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We offer extensive accommodations for students, including peer note takers, peer tutors, alternative text, exam accommodations, sign language interpreters, and relocation of classes and activities scheduled for inaccessible locations.

EQUIPMENT

We provide access to a wide range of equipment including a laptop computer for exams, Kurzweil 3000, Dragon Naturally Speaking, JAWS software, and ZoomText software.

ADVOCACY AND ADVICE

We assist you in advocating for your access to the academic and residential environment, as well as other campus resources.

AWARENESS

We actively work to increase faculty understanding of access for students with disabilities and assist in designing classroom, study, and student life accommodations.

CONFIDENTIAL

Your information concerning disabilities and accommodations will not be released without your written consent.
