

Recommended Retreat Sites

Is your organization looking for a place to hold an off-campus retreat? The following list of locations has been compiled by Student Activities Directors from Portland area colleges and universities. Please feel free to check out these locations and do not hesitate to contact Student Engagement (studentengagement@lclark.edu) if we can be of any assistance.

Some of these camp/retreat spots ideas are pricier than others just as some are more rustic than others and feature different amenities. Settings for these camps include close to the beach, on a lake, in the woods, and even near wine country.

- Ananda Center Laurelwood (<http://anandalaurelwood.org>)* in Gaston
- B'nai B'rith Camp (<http://bbcamp.org>) in Neotsu
- Camp Magruder (<http://www.campmagruder.org>) in Rockaway Beach
- Camp Yamhill (<https://campyamhill.org>) in Yamhill
- The Grove Camp and Retreat Center (<https://www.canbygrove.com>) in Canby
- Molalla Retreat (<http://www.molallaretreat.com>) in Molalla

If you have any suggestions for additional spots to add to our list, please let us know at activities@lclark.edu!

Please note that Student Engagement does not endorse any of the of the sites listed above. This list is only provided as a resource for student organizations to consider when planning off-campus retreats.

---

* The Ananda Center does not have any challenge course facilities, but Tree to Tree Adventure Park (<http://tree2treeadventurepark.com>) is nearby and can be used.