

Goals

- Short Term (End of October)
 - Attend an event on campus, aslc sponsored or not
 - Value - Community, Effective
 - Action Item - check schedule
- Mid Term (End of Semester)
 - Read White Fragility
 - Values - Equity, Justice-Driven
 - Action items: Check library at L&C and at home
 - Attend another type of event (whatever I didn't attend before)
 - Value - Community, Effective
 - Create Job Description for senators
 - Value - Transparency, Community
 - Action Item: Discuss senator's roles and jobs with Jeremiah (at least)
- Long Term (End of the Year)
 - Creating a "Guide To Senate" for people who are interested in running for/being involved in senate
 - Values - Transparency, Equity
 - Action Items: Interview people in the senate about their jobs and responsibilities, research past actions and accomplishments of the ASLC.

Fall 20' Semester Report

Short Term (End of October)

My short term goal was to attend an event on campus. I accomplished this by attending a history major outreach meeting.

- Community, Effective

Mid Term (End of Semester)

One of my mid term goals was to read White Fragility, and I haven't accomplished it yet, but hope to over winter break

- Equity, Justice-Driven

My next mid term goal was to attend another type of event (whatever I didn't attend before). I achieved this by attending a ASLC community building event, which helped me get to know my fellow representatives.

- Community, Effective

My last mid term goal was to create job description for senators. I was unable to complete this goal this semester. Originally, I thought I would be able to just copy something down or summarize a list, but the role of senators is pretty wide ranging, and even in the senate we are discussing what it means to be a senator.

- Value - Transparency, Community

Long Term (End of the Year)

My year long goal is to create a "Guide To Senate" for people who are interested in running for/being involved in the senate. I don't know if I'll be able to complete this goal, as many members of the senate are questioning the role of student government at Lewis and Clark, and some are even taking steps to reshape it. I will do my best to create something, but I may shift my efforts elsewhere, like increasing transparency in the SOC.

- Transparency, Equity