- Lewis & Clark College invites you to learn about serving in the Peace Corps and participating in the Fulbright U.S. Student Program following graduation. (Students invited to apply in the fall of their senior year.)
- Mychal Castro, a recently returned Peace Corps volunteer, will talk about his journey to the Peace Corps and his experience of serving as a Mexican-American in Costa Rica.
- Jane Hunter, Lewis & Clark's current Fulbright Program Advisor, will briefly introduce the Fulbright program, and we'll hear from former Fulbrighter Lily Clarke '15 (now a federal wildland firefighter). Lily will share her path to a study/research grant in Nepal and describe some of her projects thereafter.
- All years welcome! Q&A to follow the presentation.
