Optional Activities while at the Wilderness Center

On Day 6, travelers will have the opportunity to choose from a variety of optional activities while we are visiting the Wilderness Center. You may choose to simply take a walk, read a book or rest during this time as well. Those wishing to go horseback riding will need to commit to this ahead of time. We will gather this information prior to departure. For those wishing to ride a bike or visit the bath house, these arrangements can be made upon arrival. We'll contact all travelers as the final payment deadline approaches to make these plans.
