Possible QTPOC Group Forming

QSU is hoping to form an informal support group run by and for queer, trans, students of color. We hope to create a community and provide QTPOC students with a safe, low-key space to talk about issues they may not feel comfortable talking about elsewhere. This group will be hosted by QSU coordinators who identify as queer students of color.

In order to gauge interest, we ask that you fill out the linked interest form and when2meet. Please email qsu@lclark.edu with any questions.

Circles of Solace Grief Group

These are challenging times. Many of us are carrying deep grief and sorrow in our hearts—for our world, communities, and personal losses. The circles offer a safe and sacred place to share our grief—not as a problem to be solved, but as a vital and healing encounter with an essential experience of being human.

No weekly commitment required. The fall series of Circles of Solace will meet four times: Oct. 26, Nov. 2, 9, and 16th from 7:15-8:15pm. Come to all or any.

Experience silence, journaling, poetry, open sharing in community. Open to CAS students.

Hosted by Hilary Martin Himan, Chaplain and Director of Spiritual Life

Visit the IME Suite: 9-5pm Monday to Friday
If you want to meet with us, or need a place to study/hangout -- come to the
