

Midsouth Undergraduate Philosophy Conference

April 17-18, 2009 – University of Memphis

Call for Papers

The undergraduate Philosophy Circle at the University of Memphis is very pleased to announce a call for papers for the annual undergraduate philosophy conference. In the spirit of the pluralism at Memphis, we will welcome papers from all philosophical traditions and discourses.

Conference Style

The papers selected for presentation by the conference committee may be read aloud, paraphrased, or otherwise presented with the use of aids (PowerPoint, whiteboard, chalk, etc.). Presentations should be limited to 15 minutes, in order to ensure adequate time for questions and discussion.

Questions

Please direct any questions about the Undergraduate Philosophy Conference to our student coordinator, Adam Field at afield@memphis.edu, or to our faculty advisor, Dr. Remy Debes at rdeb@memphis.edu.

Submissions

We kindly ask that submissions do not exceed a length of 3500 words (approximately 14 pages). Submissions themselves should not contain any identifying marks (last name, school, etc.), but must be accompanied by a cover letter stating the author's name, school, mailing address, telephone number, and email address. Please mail or deliver two printed copies to the address below:

Undergraduate Philosophy Conference
Department of Philosophy
327 Clement Hall
University of Memphis
Memphis, TN 38152

Papers for the undergraduate conference must be postmarked by March 13th 2009, in order to guarantee their consideration.